

Mission Statement

At the service of the church and one with the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate whose mission is that of Jesus Christ sent to announce good news to the poor, freedom to captives and new vision to the blind (Luke 4), Queen's House is primarily committed to the renewal of the people of God with special regard for the alienated and the suffering.

A place of hospitality, beauty and quiet, Queen's House welcomes all peoples in their unique life experiences. They come to pray and worship, to seek healing and human dignity, to grow in knowledge of self, the world and God. With risk and daring Queen's House responds to these needs through creative programs and collaborative ministry.

Embracing its own need for conversion, Queen's House looks to the day when all may love tenderly, act justly and walk in truth with one another and with God (Micah 6).

Waiting in Joyful Hope: An Advent Retreat

Christmas music and decorations appearing in stores in November...for many, this fills us with anything BUT "joyful hope!" And yet, Christians are called to this prophetic stance in our world today.

What does it mean to "wait in joyful hope?" And how can we embrace this compelling and challenging invitation as we live into these Advent days and prepare for the Christmas season?

Come and join a group of thoughtful people as we hold this sacred invitation in the midst of very full and demanding lives.
